222.001 Definition.

Labor advisor, as used in this part, means the departmental or agency headquarters labor advisor.

48 CFR Ch. 2 (10-1-05 Edition)

Subpart 222.1—Basic Labor Policies

222.101 Labor relations.

222.101-1 General.

- (a) Contracting offices shall—
 - (i) Obtain departmental approval before contacting a national office of a labor organization, a Government agency headquarters, or any other organization on a labor relations matter;
 - (ii) Notify departmental headquarters as required in departmental procedures when contacted by the national office of any labor organization or Government agency headquarters;
 - (iii) Obtain the approval of the agency head on major policy decisions regarding labor relations matters such as recommendations for plant seizure or injunctive action relating to potential or actual work stoppages; and
 - (iv) Submit questions involving FAR part 22 or other contractor labor relations matters to the labor advisor.

222.101-3 Reporting labor disputes.

The contract administration office shall—

- (1) Notify the labor advisor, the contracting officer, and the head of the contracting activity when interference is likely; and
- (2) Disseminate information on labor disputes in accordance with departmental procedures.

[64 FR 28109, May 25, 1999]

222.101-3-70 Impact of labor disputes on defense programs.

(a) Each department and agency shall determine the degree of impact of potential or actual labor disputes on its own programs and requirements. In making these determinations, consider, for example—

(1) Whether the dispute involves a product, project (including construction), or service which must be obtained in order to meet schedules for urgently needed military programs or requirements; and

(2) Whether alternative sources of supply for the product, project, or service are reasonably available to fulfill the requirement or program in time to maintain essential military schedules.
